The Colored Exhibit.

The colored people's exhibit to be sent to Atlanta has been open to the public for inspection during the past week at the colored Y.M.C.A., 1609 11th street northwest.

It has proved a point of great attraction, as the rooms have been well filled each evening with interested visitors. Among evening with interested visitors. Among the more notable exhibits are the pictures of the Washington Amateur Art Society, and the art work of Miss Coleman and of Mrs. Arthur S. Gray. The exhibits in reedlework, millinery, dyeing and dry cleaning, the latter by Mrs. O. P. Griffin, deserve special mention. Today, for the first time, Mr. Daniel Freeman had in place his large assortment of photographs of the principal colored churches and the homes of prominent colored citizens.

The August Mass Meeting to Be Held at Washington Grove. The mass meeting of the Washington district Epworth League for the month of Au-gust will be held at Washington Grove Tuesday evening, the 20th instant, the first day of the camp meeting. Rev. W. R. Stricklen of Baltimore and president of the Baltimore conference, Epworth League, will address the young people on the topic, "The One Thing Needful." Mr. Stricklen is is one of the most attractive speakers of the conference, and no league member should miss the opportunity of hearing his address. Rev. Luther B. Wilson, D.D., presiding elder of the Washington district, will preside at the meeting, in the absence of both the president of the league, Mr. W. B. Mathews, and the first vice president, Mr. J. S. Barker, under whose department—that of spiritual work—the meeting is held. The tabernacle at the grove where the service is to be held will be decorated for the occasion, and special music, both vocal and instrumental, is being arranged for by Mrs. Mickle, district fourth vice president.

Many of the members are already arranging to spend the entire day at the grove, thus adding a pleasant outing to the devotional features of the day. To Enforce a Judgment. A creditor's bill to collect a judgment of $2,156.66, secured in the supreme court of the state of New York May 11, 1894, was today filed with the clerk of the District Supreme Court by Edward D. Woodruff agsinst Wm. H. Harris, Edward D. White, Reginald Fendall, John D. Coughlan, Ed-Reginald Fendall, John D. Coughlan, Edward A. Newman and Martha H. Vawter.

Woodruff states that Harris is the owner of lot 22 and part of lot 23, square 159. In December last, he conveyed the same by deed of trust to Fendall and Coughlan to secure an indebtedness of $30,000 to Newman. In the same morth, according to the bill, Harris leased the property to Associate Justice Edward D. White of the Supreme Court of the United States. Later in December, Mr. Woodruff declares, Harris fraudulently, and for the purpose of preventing the collection due in the judgment, made another conveyance of the property, this time to Martha H. Vawter, to secure a pretended indebtedness of $3,500.

Mr. Woodruff alleges that Harris con-

$9,500.

Mr. Woodruff alleges that Harris conspired with Martha H. Vawter, a relative, to enter into the scheme of giving a fraudulent deed, and that not one dollar changed hands in the deed.

It is also asked that the property be sold at auction and the proceeds used in paying the debt claimed to be due Woodruff.
